Glades help pours in for Kemps

BELLE GLADE

Area residents swiftly began mobilizing help to stand behind one of their own Sunday when news flashed around town that a Belle Glade family had lost a son and all its material possessions in the Toccoa, Ga. disaster.

Chris Kemp

The Rev. Mark O'Farrell, pastor of the Belle Glade Alliance Church, said donations from members of his church alone, where the collections have centered, have already passed $1,000 in the wake of news church member Thurman Kemp and his family were caught in the flooding following the bursting of a dam, losing their seven-year-old son, Christopher.

Rev. O'Farrell said funeral services for Christopher will be held at 10 a.m. Friday at his church, with burial at Port Mayaca Cemetery. Mixson Funeral Home will be in charge of arrangements. He said the Kemps would be home for the services.

The Kemps were flown into Palm Beach Glades Airport in Pahokee. Ruby Kemp is now in Everglades Memorial Hospital in Pahokee and the rest of the Kemp family is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Tyson, Christopher's maternal grandparents, in Belle Glade.

Kemp, who was a small engines mechanics instructor at Glades Central High School until June, enrolled as a student at Toccoa Bible School in July, according to Rev. O'Farrell, when he "felt the call to do something with his life for God."

The family was awakened early Sunday morning by Mrs. Ruby Kemp of 137 Banyan Ave. in Pahokee, who was visiting her son's family, when she heard what she thought was a tornado and the family ran from their mobile home just before they were caught by the waters released from Kelley Barnes Lake.

The family members held hands as they ran until they were pounded apart by the waters cascading over Toccoa Falls, with Ruby going one way, Thurman and ten-year-old Morgan being carried off another way and his wife, Dixie, and Chris being swept off in a third direction.

Dixie and Chris were quickly separated when they were struck by a board, which is believed to have killed Chris instantly. Dixie was among the first of the survivors

Criminal action to be filed by city against lot owners

VETERANS DAY Parade Chairman William R. Alston and National Guard Sgt. Tom Pearson ready a 106 mm recoilless rifle mounted on a jeep which will be part of the big parade Friday.

Vets Day parade may draw 2,000 marchers

BELLE GLADE-Plans for a countywide Veterans Day Parade, which could see more than 2,000 marchers on the streets of Belle Glade Friday, moved into final stages this week.

Parade Chairman William R. Alston said he really has no idea just how many participants there will be in the parade but all veterans groups in the county, along with other organizations, are supposed to be represented.

He said the parade will gather at the Municipal Civic Center, where a short memorial service is planned, at 11 a.m. and will get under way at 11:30 a.m.

Alston said the parade is being sponsored by all veterans' organizations in the county and is being hosted by Belle Glade Post #220

American Legion, which counts Alston, and assistant parade chairman Wayne J. Miner as members.

Palm Beach County Sheriff Richard Willie has already agreed to be parade marshal and Capt. Frank Fogleman, head of the Sheriff's detachment in the Glades, will be the assistant marshal.

The parade route will be south on Northwest Fourth Street to West Canal Street North, east to Main Street, south to Southeast Avenue E (past the reviewing stand at Earl's Service Center), east to Southeast Second Street and north to Southeast Avenue C, where the parade will disband at the American Legion parking lot behind the Post Office.

Registration of units for the parade, for those still interested in participating, will be from 9 to 11 a.m. at the Civic Center where the Glades CB Club will serve coffee and doughnuts, beginning at 8 a.m.

"What I'd like to do," Alston said, "is to turn this into a day-long celebration, with dancing in the streets Friday night." He said he hadn't been able to get any commitments on that as yet but there are other plans being made.

He said a barbeque chicken dinner will be served at the American Legion and at the Elks Club following the parade and there will be a movie of the Glades area shown at the Elks Club starting after the parade.

Alston said another feature for out of town guests will be an open house at Everglades Post 20 of the American Legion Thursday

BELLE GLADE--The City Commission decided Tuesday night to get tough in two problem areas by filing criminal charges against property owners who refuse to maintain their vacant lots and request a concerted effort to pick up stray dogs.

The long-standing effort by the commission to get owners of vacant lots to maintain the property themselves or pay the city to do it for them came to a head during a workshop session when the commissioners instructed City Manager Robert R. Sanders and City Attorney John Baker to begin criminal proceedings.

The commissioners, after some discussion, opted to have Baker file suit against at least one of the recalcitrant landowners as a test case.

Mayor Tom Altman broached the possibility. City staffers said there was no problem identifying the owners or letting them know the city wants them to maintain their property primarily by keeping grass mowed.

"We know who the owners are," Sanders said, "and we've let them know how we feel. That's no problem. The problem comes up when we tell them to mow the lot, 'or else,' and they take the attitude, 'or else, what?'"

Buildings and Grounds Superintendent Ron Snyder showed the commissioners a map of the problem property and distributed a list of the owners who have taken the "or else what?" attitude.

Snyder said a series of letters have been mailed to the owners, getting steadily stricter in tone but he said many letters in the last mailing, made up of certified letters, were returned when the owners had simply failed to claim them.

Public Works Director Ron Sigmon said the violators in the main aren't as suggested during the discussion, out of town owners but local people. He said that usually when an absentee landlord was notified by mail his lot needed cleaning up, he would send a check and authorize the city to clean it up for him.

The city-operated program began some time ago when the commission decided to ask owners to begin paying to have their lots mowed by city crews, based on a cost-per-acre-per-number-of-times-mowed.

Sigmon suggested one possibility might be to post the vacant lots, without notifying the owners by mail, and if, after

City to hire engineer, fire consulting firms

BELLE GLADE-City Manager Robert R. Sanders is expected to notify the city's consulting engineers today the city will be hiring its own engineer in the near future and their services will no longer be required to the extent as in the past.

Sanders brought the matter up in a Tuesday night workshop when he told the commissioners they could save the city an estimated $36,500 a year by the move, as well as expect better services.

"I don't want this to be construed to have anyone think we're unhappy with the performance of Baker, Osha and Anderson," Sanders said. "It could be any firm."

"The fact is," he said, "with the city at the level it is now, we need our own engineer on board."

He said the advantages to hiring the city's own engineer should be obvious and, after he, City Planner John Gubisch, Chief Building Inspector Kenneth Retterer and Public Works Director Ron Sigmon spoke, the commissioners gave a tentative approval which should be ratified during the commission's regular meeting Monday night.

The city manager said the city had spent a total of $78,061 during fiscal year 1976-1977 for consulting engineering services.

In order to help offset the estimated cost, Sanders recommended the commissioners to do away with the position of building inspector, keeping only Retterer in his position.

The commission expressed approval of Sanders recommendations but can take no official action until the matter comes up at a regular or special meeting.

Sanders did say the city should still budget an estimated $25,000 for consulting engineering work to be done on special projects.

He estimated the city could have its own engineer by about the first of the year.

Regatta is this Sunday

BELLE GLADE--The Chamber of Commerce is expecting approximately 50 boats to take part in the 14th Annual Belle Glade Regatta, nine classes and donations may be asked of spectators for the first time this Sunday.

The races are held in several classes, including everything from midget outboards to large inboards, and usually attract a crowd of 2000 to 3000 spectators.

For the first time, however, the Chamber, which has steadily been losing money on the event, has tentatively decided to ask for donations at the top of the Herbert Hoover Dike or to have directors passing through the crowd to take donations while the races are going on.

Executive Secretary Jewel Crane appeared before the Belle Glade City Commission Tuesday night to ask for permission for the collections to be made but she was told the matter can be handled by simply applying for a permit.

She made it plain that the donations wouldn't constitute an admission charge because there would be no pressure applied to anyone who doesn't wish to do so. The Chamber lost approximately STREET CLEANING CREWS included some strange faces Saturday morning as a number of city officials such as City Manager Robert R. Sanders (swinging brush hook) and his assistant, Craig Butters, joined Mayor Tom Altman, Commissioner

US27 meet tonight

BELLE GLADE--A special meeting of the Canal Hazards Safety Committee will be held at 7:30 p.m. tonight at the Holiday Inn.

Committee Secretary Helen S. McCormick said Jim Zei, district design staff engineer for the Department of Transportation will be the principal speaker, leading a discussion on the four-laned section of US 27 from the Florida Power & Light station south of Bolles Canal, with a service road for trucks, along with SR 827.

I was pretty proud of our local anglers this week.

I was, that is, until I read in the Times Monday that they had been completely outclassed, outfished and out scored.

That's right. The Lake Okeechobee Bassmasters took top honors Saturday and Sunday in the United Bass Fishermen club tournament held in Clewiston.

They netted a total of 141 pounds, 8 ounces of largemouths to come to the head of the 26 clubs and 126 anglers entered. In doing so, the local boys collected $847 in prize money.

That's pretty good, you have to admit. Seldom have local lake fishermen placed higher in tournaments as large as this one.

But they better go out and recruit a couple of new members. During the time of the tournament was underway Sunday, another hunt was also being held. Two small boys had escaped from mother and home and headed out to their own favorite fishing hole.

The two youngsters, both eight years old, grabbed a few feet of daddy's best fishing line, a couple of hooks, and a chunk of sirloin steak and off they went.

Not a mile from Angier's Marina, where the week-in of the UBF tournament was being held, they cast their unlikely baits into the murky water and held tightly to their sticks on which their line was tied.

The suspense was building at Angier's. With 125 of the 126 anglers weighed in, the Bassmasters were ahead, but not by much. They needed four pounds to stay in front and only one Bassmaster had not weighed in.

With a smug grin, Sonny Campbell put his ten pounder up on the other team members. John D. is, John Kelly, Derrell Mathis, Finley Pate, and Doug Bowe let our Rebel yell. They had won.

Top fisherman for the two days was John Kelly who tagged 38 pounds, two ounces. The largest fish of the tournament was brought in by Gene Wiley, who caught a mossyback weighing nine pounds, four ounces.

And the two eight-year olds, Frankie Childers and Israel Rodriguez, hauled in 33 pounds, including one lunker of 11 pounds, in little over two hours with their sirloin-tipped hooks.

Like I say, the Bassmasters better sign up those two before the Clewiston club gets to them.

This proves conclusively that bass aren't dumb. While the tournament anglers were out enticing fish with plastic worms cast from graphite rods and were shuffling to and fro in their $5,000 bass boats, they were using the wrong bait entirely.

And I hear Dan May down at May's Bait and Tackle has begun production on a real sirloin steak tipped with treble hooks. Calls it the Okeechobee Special.

Charles Corbin is thinking about putting in a meat cooler at his establishment, but Nan suspects he'll eat up all the profits.

Sirloin may be expensive, but when you consider it in light of a fisherman who pays about $25 per hour to follow his sport one small steak can go a long way.

Until it's chewed in half by hungry bass.

See you next week. If sirloin works, then what about the porkchophouse the wife bought a couple of months ago and is holding for a special occasion.

Me thinks the occasion has arrived!

Another Okeechobee?

Sometimes a tragedy in a faraway place strikes home in the local community and such was the case Sunday morning when a Belle Glade family was caught up in the flood at Toccoa Bible College when the Kelley Barnes dam burst, killing 78 people, including seven-year old Chris Kemp.

Chris' father, Thurman, and mother, Dixie, were enrolled as students at the college in preparation for beginning careers devoted to their church and their God.

The Kemps, who had lived for years in Glades, fell called earlier this year and left in June, with their sons, Morgan, 10, and Chris. Kemp's mother, Mrs. Ruby Kemp of Pahokee, was visiting them at the time and she was the one who woke the family to the wave of water roaring over Toccoa falls which eventually smashed the Kemp's mobile home and scattered the family over a wide area, killing young Chris.

As usual, Glades residents were quick to extend a helping hand to one of their own and a fund-raising drive was already well underway by the time morning services began at five local churches. Those efforts have been extended since then and show once again the cooperative spirit which made the settling and taming of this area possible.

There's a real comparison to be made there between the Toccoa Bible College tragedy and the catastrophe which hit the Glades area in September 1928 when some 2,000 area residents died in flood waters pushed out of Lake Okeechobee by hurricane winds.

But there's another viable comparison to be made, the sure knowledge before the event that there was a real danger: Here in the inadequacy of the muck levees around the big lake and in Toccoa Falls of the weakness of the earthen dam holding back the 80-acre Kelley Barnes Lake.

One local man said he'd stopped fishing the lake last summer because, "That SOB has been leaking for years, and it's common knowledge."

It was one of 84 dams in Georgia and an outstanding 20,000 nationwide which have been cleared "highly hazardous" and which had received no more attention than to have the hazards pointed out.

The Kelley Barnes Dam has been compared, along with the 20,000 others around the nation, to a loaded shotgun aimed at the lives and property of those downstream.

That shotgun went off Sunday and claimed one of Belle Glade's own.

The question facing the people of this community, and the nation now is whether there are going to have to be more shotgun blasts, with the resultant loss of life and property, before we force Congress to take some type of appropriate action.

It took a disastrous loss of 2,000 lives before the people of the Glades were granted their own dam, in the form of the Herbert Hoover Dike, and that not until years and huge expense later.

There will obviously be no cheap or easy answers to the problems of the 83 remaining hazardous dams in the State of Georgia, or the other 20,000 others around the country but it behooves us to take a hard, close look at the problem and do something.

The question now is how many more lives must be lost to drive that point home.

Dear Sir:

With a leer and a sneer, and Prayer for all who deny our God. The Founders of our Nation, pray, turn from their wicked ways and seek my face, then will I hear from Heaven, forgive their sins and heal their lands. If this God did this for the Nation of Judah and Benjamin for an extra hundred years, He'll do the same for the U.S.A.

Armistice day was born in this attitude, so may we again say with Kipling, "Lord God of Hosts, be with us yet, lest we forget, lest we forget."

Remember this on Armistice day and pay your debt of gratitude to our departed Comrades.

Dear Sir:
Thank you for the excellent coverage on United Way and the bonus positive editorial.

It's amazing how good a response your endorsement accomplished and we've come a long way into having services for the Glades supported by United Way dollars.

"We're all part of it" our theme for this year's campaign was also an attainment in that we have now several members of our community on the board of directors.

We intend to continue the support of the scouts, the nurses, the retarded, the children, the helpless, the handicapped and have our Red Cross, Visiting Nurse Association, Children's Home Society and Wee Care to continue their everyday work for the people in the Glades area.

Again, in behalf of thousands of people helped there we thank you and your publishers for giving us your endorsement.

CRACKER CRUMBS

BY DEAN JONES

Now that was a weekend for football!

Not only did my Gators come through up in Jacksonville for their first win over Georgia in more years than I care to think about but the game between the Raiders and Martin County has to rank right up there with the best high school games I've ever seen.

Talk about suspense in sports, there just ain't that many games I've ever seen when the winning score is racked up after the clock runs out...but to have 21 points scored in little more than four minutes with the lead changing three times; too much!

Disappointment when the Tigers tied up the game gave way to ecstasy when Preston Vickers sacked the Martin County quarterback in his own end zone to put the Raiders back on top by a two-point safety.

Then I swear I saw some of those players on the sideline crying when Martin County scored their last TD but that wasn't anything compared to the madhouse when Jones scored his touchdown with no time remaining.

Matter of fact, a couple people who were in the stands Friday wanted to know where was when Jones romped across the goal line. Said they didn't see me and thought I'd joined the general exodus toward the gate.

That wasn't too surprising though. Doubt if anyone could see through those cheerleaders who were all around me jumping up and down and screaming.

All I can say is that the Raiders must have been one hungry ball club to win the way they did and Jones must have been starving.

Did my head go to catch the rampage by Wee Chandler in the Gator Bowl Saturday too? Dickey's had more than his share of problems this year and the Gators slipped and stumbled more than they were supposed to have.

But if it isn't the Year of the Gator yet, no football season can all but end the Gators wait down the Bulldogs. Now for the girl's school.

There's been more than a little action on the homefront too, what with the Bicentennial Committee starting preparations for the town's 50th anniversary celebration on April 8.

This could wind up to be a big thing and considering the fact it's a milestone for the area, it should be. The problem, like most affairs of this kind, is getting enough people involved.

What I'd like to see would be for the festival used as a springboard to an annual shindig something along the lines of Mardi Gras. Haven's Chalo Nitka or LaBelle's Swamp Cabbage Festival.

Considering the time of year, it could be given a harvest theme and that's a natural for Belle Glade. There's also a possibility of turning it into an area-wide annual celebration, bringing in Pahokee and South Bay.

Who knows, it might even add a spirit of cooperation instead of competition and God knows, that's something we need in western Palm Beach County.

Right now, there isn't enough of an indication to give much of an idea what kind of support a harvest festival on an annual basis would have in the area but a few people I've talked to seem to like the idea and that's encouraging.

So far as the celebration this April goes, however, there's been the parade that's a natural, a barbecue or fish fry, skits depicting the founding of the city and some of the milestones in the past and any number of other projects.

But the whole idea is to get as much community participation as possible and if April seems like a long way off, consider there's some pretty big jobs to be accomplished in the next few months, especially considering we have Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Years in between.

So come on, Belle Glade!

Solid Waste

It wasn't particularly surprising to find objections to the proposed site of a planned combination facility to handle solid waste being generated in the Glades. Nobody likes to have a landfill located next to their property particularly next to their home.

The problem is that there are no good places for a garbage dump...or even a landfill and incinerator, when there are private property owners in the vicinity. It definitely limits the development potential of the area.

But this is one case where the site selected was probably the best available in the area for a facility which is going to be forced on the community if we don't take measures to provide it for ourselves.

An immutable law of life is that people generate garbage and trash and it's going to have to be disposed of somewhere. Since the proposed site is in the vicinity of the city's sewage treatment plant and immediately adjacent to the existing city landfill, which has been there for more years than most of us have been living here, it's an obvious choice.

Let's get on with it.

Silverhairs

State Senator John C. Thomas of Fort Lauderdale, we've learned, has proposed a Silver Haired Legislature, similar to that in Missouri, which would be designed to "assist our senior citizens to better understand statewide issues and to develop their own list of statewide priorities needing legislative action."

Uh Huh; then we could set up a Lads and Lassies Legislature to lobby for what the children want, a Young Singles Legislature to tell state officials what they want, and one for the Blacks, one for the Cubans, one for businessmen, one for labor unions, one for teachers, one for school boards, one for...

City-Farm tour planned

BELLE GLADE-Business and professional men from the West Palm Beach area are being invited to take part on a day long Farm-City tour of the Glades agricultural area Friday, Nov. 18 in an effort to impress on them the role farming plays in Palm Beach County.

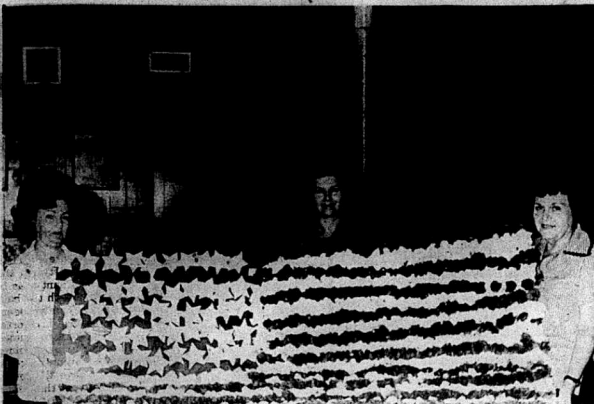

The tour is being sponsored by the Western Palm Beach County Farm Bureau according to E.W. "Bud" Weaver, public information director.

"There's a lot of people on the coast," Weaver said, "who've never come out to the Glades and they may never come out here unless they fish. We're hoping that when they see the contribution we make to the economy of the county, they'll appreciate us a bit more, and realize we're good stewards of the soil."

Weaver said the tour will leave the Mounts Building on Military Trail at 8:30 a.m. and will tour Duda Farms, the Sugar Cane Growers Cooperative of Florida sugar cane mill, have lunch at the Municipal Civic Center and then go to Pahokee for a look at Lake Okeechobee from the Marvin O'wart Memorial Tower in Pahokee before heading back to West

Palm Beach. He said arrangements are also being made to present each participant of the tour a gut of a variety of Glades-grown vegetables.

OLD GLORY was given a new look in preparation for the Veterans Day Parade which kicks off at 11:30 a.m. Friday. Wilma Rowland, Colleen Blackwell and Katherine Huffstickler of the American Legion Auxiliary were among the workers who put together two flags to be used in the parade. An extra patriotic note was added when papier mache poppies made by veterans in VA hospitals were used to form the red stripes.

Basketball program to start

BELLE GLADE-The City Recreation Department will be holding a public meeting at 7:30 p.m. Nov. 22 to discuss the details of a department sponsored basketball program designed for participants of both sexes from 10 years old and up in five leagues.

Recreation Coordinator Frank Mayfield said the department is inviting anyone who wishes to participate in the formation of the City of Belle Glade Basketball Association, urging them to come and take part in the association's founding.

The five leagues being proposed are: a boys league, for 10 to 12 year olds; a girls league with the same restrictions; a teen age league for boys only for 13 to 15 years old (although boys in these age brackets can play in the men's league if they so wish); a teen league for girls only; a Men's League with no age restrictions and a Women's League with no age restrictions.

Mayfield said the program will begin Dec. 12 and last through Feb. 16, 1978, with a duration of ten weeks. A tournament will be held at the end of the season on Feb. 23-25. Trophies will be given for regular season and tournament play.

A $25 registration fee will be charged each team for participation in the program. The fee will be used to help pay for the cost of the program. Mayfield said team members can divide the cost among themselves or try to locate a sponsor who would pay the fee and possibly provide uniforms.

He said each participant in the program will be issued a City of Belle Glade Basketball Association card and a Basketball Association Board will be made up of association members. The board will serve as a disciplinary committee and as representatives of the association.

Mayfield said registration will begin on Nov. 23 and continue through Dec. 2 at the Parks and Recreation office in McDonald Park. The office will be closed Nov. 24. Registration hours will be between 8 a.m. and noon and from 1 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday during registration period.

"Teams are urged to register early," Mayfield said, "as there is a limit on the number of teams that will be allowed in each league. Registration will be on a first come-first served basis."

He said each participant in the program will be required to sign up a waiver that releases the city from responsibility for injuries. This will be done during registration. Participants under the age of 18 will need an identification to prove their age or a parent or legal guardian will need to come in with the participant and sign a waiver.

Pedestrian is injured in Canal Point

CANAL POINT-A Pahokee man who was struck by a car last Wednesday at 7:40 p.m. was transferred to a Good Samaritan Hospital in West Palm Beach with facial cuts and possible internal injuries.

According to Florida Highway Patrol Trooper W.M. Burroughs, the accident occurred when Robert Earl Scroggin of 371 Banyan Ave. Pahokee walked into the path of a car driven by Clyde Elwood Ball of Ft. Lauderdale.

Scroggin, who was standing on the east side of State Road 15 in Canal Point, walked into the roadway as the vehicle was heading south, Burroughs said. Unable to avoid the collision, the car struck Scroggin with the right fender, throwing the pedestrian 14 feet.

Xi Iota Alpha holds meeting in White home

BELLE GLADE—The 58th meeting of the Xi Iota Alpha Chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi was held on Tuesday November at the home of Mrs. Sandy white, President.

A lovely glass plate with the Beta Sigma Phi insignia in the center was given to Mrs. Eileen Roessing as a house warming gift, from her sisters.

Mrs. White asked everyone to keep in mind the up coming 80th anniversary of Belle Glade and to offer suggestions on how our chapter can best participate in this event.

Plans were discussed about our sidewalk sale to be held on the corner of S.E. 3rd and Ave. E on December 3rd.

Mrs. Rosemary Buchanan presented a very interesting program, on a difficult subject: The life and ideas of William James. Part of the presentation was a film titled "Philosophy the Question of Man."

Mrs. White served desert and coffee to her guests.

Association for retarded citizens formed

Beginning with a luncheon in August 1976, members of the Glades community began to take the necessary steps to form an organization that would work to insure that the needs of the mentally retarded persons residing in their community would be met. In order to do this, it was decided that a local Association for Retarded Citizens should evolve separate from Palm Beach County Association for Retarded Citizens to focus on the needs of the Glades Community.

With full support from Palm Beach County ARC, this initial group with others joining them held a membership meeting in November. At this meeting officers and board of directors were elected. Now a year later, after much paper work and many meetings, Glades Area Association for Retarded Citizens is a reality. In June 1977, G.A.A.R.C. became incorporated as a non-profit organization, chartered as an Association for Retarded Citizens, and an affiliate of the Florida Association for Retarded Citizens and the National Association for Retarded Citizens.

Bridesmaids luncheon honors Lisa Jernigan

PAHOKEE—Mrs. Louise Brown entertained in her home at 2138 Bacom Point Road with a bridesmaids luncheon honoring Miss Lisa Jernigan, bride-elect of Terry Adams.

The main table was decorated with a wedding bell centerpiece entwined with fern and daisies and flanked with miniature brides and grooms.

The guests enjoyed a most delicious luncheon after which Lisa presented her attendants with gifts. Those attending were Mrs. Carolyn Jernigan, Mrs. Louise Adams, Mrs. Novella Hickerson, Mrs. Lola Carter, Mrs. Louis Kinsaul, Mrs. Bert Adams, Mrs. Ann Johnson, Jennifer and Erika Jernigan; Patti, Penny and Sherri Brown.

After the luncheon, the bridesmaids went to Lisa's future home at 2143 East Main Street and made rice bags for the wedding.

The wedding will be Saturday, November 12th at 8:00 p.m. at the First United Methodist Church of Pahokee.

All friends and relatives are cordially invited as no local invitations were sent.

Rev. Williams gives Mrs. Hall her plaque.

Mrs. R.A. Hall receives plaque for church work

BELLE GLADE—Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Wiseman of 1408 N.W. F Place, Belle Glade, announce the engagement of their daughter, Kathy Lynn to Brad Rhodes, son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Rhodes of 125 S.E. Ave. F, Belle Glade.

Miss Wiseman is a graduate of Glades Central High and is presently employed at Royal S Department Store, Glades Plaza.

The groom-elect is a graduate of Glades Central High and is presently employed at Glades Auto Supply, Belle Glade.

The wedding will take place Dec. 30 at 7:00 p.m. at the Apostolic Church of Jesus Christ.

MISS WISEMAN

Mrs. Hall is honored for work in the church

SOUTH BAY—Mrs. R.A. Hall was recently presented with a plaque commemorating 35 years of faithful service of teaching Sunday School at the First Baptist Church of South Bay.

The Pastor, the Rev. Bill Anderson, and the congregation honored her not only with a plaque but dedicated the full homecoming activities in her honor.

Over the years Mrs. Hall has been active in Sunday School, WMU, and Training Union. She is currently a Sunday School teacher and church treasurer. The pastor said in his presentation for her outstanding service that it was dedication like hers that was directly responsible for the survival of the church in South Bay.

Sorority holds regular meeting

PAHOKEE—The regular meeting of the Xi Beta Tau sorority was held November 4th at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. Patsy Hundley.

Plans for the November social were discussed and completed during the meeting. It was decided that the social will be held at the home of Mrs. Ann Alderman on November 19th at 8 p.m. The theme of the social will coincide with a Traditional Fall Harvest dinner.

Following the adjournment of the meeting and after refreshments were served to the members and guests, a program was presented by Bill Trimmer of the County Sheriff's Department on the drug abuse problem in Palm Beach County.

November 17 is a date to remember

Mark your calendars now and a friends, too! Thursday, November 17, at 8:00 will be the second annual general membership meeting of G.A.A.R.C. The meeting will be held in the parish hall of Saint John's Episcopal Church. It is very important meeting as officers for the 1978-1979 calendar year will be elected. A short film explaining what a membership in an ARC is all about will be shown.

The film was done locally and reflects the programs operated in Palm Beach County for mentally retarded persons.

Glades Day School senior is honored for high test score

BELLE GLADE—A Glades Day School senior was notified last week he has achieved Commended Student status in the 23rd Annual National Merit Scholarship Program for his performance on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test/National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test (PSAT/NMSQT) administered last October.

Dick Crockett, son of Dr. and Mrs. J.R. Crockett of 579 S.E. Fifth St., was presented the commendation last week. He was one of the 62 seniors who took the exam as juniors last year at Glades Day.

A total of approximately 35,000 commended students throughout the United States are being honored by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, which administers the yearly scholarship competition. Students in this group represent less than two percent of the total of graduation U.S. secondary school seniors. Although these students scored slightly below the level required for Merit Program participants who were named semifinalists and who will continue in the competition for merit scholarships to be awarded in 1978, each commended student has demonstrated exceptional academic promise.

A spokesman for NMSC said the corporation believes "the high standing of Merit Program Commended students is an attainment that deserves their public recognition because the nation as well as these students will be benefited by continued educational and personal development of their talents."

Turkey shoot tickets on sale

BELLE GLADE—The Belle Glade Rotarians are now selling tickets for their annual turkey shoot, which will be held December 16 and 17 on Avenue L behind Mixson's Florist.

Money used in the fund-raising effort will be used by the club for various civic projects. Tickets can be purchased from any Rotarian or shooters may be able to buy them at the gate. Shooting will begin at 5:00 p.m. each evening and last until 9:00 p.m.

Guns will be available and shells will be furnished by the club. More information will be made available later.

In other news from the Rotary Club, all members are being urged to attend the meeting Thursday night at the Holiday Inn at 7:30 p.m. to provide input into the US 27 project for the Department of Transportation.

Two Rotary members, John Turnbull and Charlie Trammel, are visiting other clubs to ask their members to do likewise.

Diane Wedgworth stars in hockey

GREENVILLE, S.C.—Diane Wedgworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Wedgworth, drew attention from her coach Oct. 25, for her performance in the Furman University field hockey team's last game of the year, which gave the Lady Paladins a 9-2-1 season.

Diane played particularly well on defense (from her halfback position), Coach Barbara Berry said, "and executed several nice passes to the forward line," in the 2-0 victory over favored Converse.

Miss Wedgworth, for three years was on the Furman swimming team and is winding up her first year playing field hockey. She was one of the five Furman semi-finalists who was considered for the Deep South Field Hockey playoff due to be held this weekend at William & Mary University but she wasn't one of the three who will be playing.

Sharon Morel of the university's sports department, said Miss Wedgworth had a particularly good year for a first-year player, contributing to the Lady Paladins' 2-0 win over Wake Forest and 2-1 victory over Pfeiffer during this past weekend's Deep South Field Hockey Tournament.

Pahokee is second in tourney

PAHOKEE—Pahokee High came away with second place in the District X girls' volleyball tournament held in the high school gym Saturday afternoon.

Bishop Verot of Ft. Myers captured first place, beating Pahokee 15-12 and 15-11 in the finals. For each match up, the team that won the best two out of three games was the victor.

Leading to the match against Bishop Verot, Pahokee had to take on LaBelle, winning with 15-0 and 15-3 games.

The two other teams that participated were Rosarian and Imokalee.

Fifth generation is born

SOUTH RAY: The fifth generation of a family, with all generations still living, was represented recently when Daphanie Grantz was born to Patricia Grantz in Everglades Memorial Hospital in Pahokee.

Daphanie was born on Oct. 25 and is now at home with her mother and great-grandmother, Maurine Elliott on Second Street. Daphanie's grandmother Carrie Church, is now living in North Carolina and her great-great-grandmother, Carrie McVey, is living in Kansas City, Mo.

FAFF Club meets for luncheon

PAHOKEE—The Fun After Fifty-Five (FAFF) Club of Pahokee and Canal Point met November 1st for a luncheon meeting in the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church of Pahokee.

After a delightful meal, Dr. Joseph Orsenigo, director of Agricultural Research of the Florida Sugar Cane League, gave an interesting talk illustrated with flags and artifacts owned by "Digs" for Indian relics in the Glades area.

As a member of the Historical Society and director of the Belle Glade Museum, Dr. Orsenigo has had 20 years of study and experience in digging for such artifacts. He exhibited interesting and colorful examples of the findings.

After a short business meeting, the club adjourned until the next regular meeting, to be held December 8th.

Repairs workshop scheduled

CANAL POINT—A workshop entitled "Simple Home Repairs" will be held Wednesday, November 23 from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m. at the Canal Point Civic Center.

The workshop is being presented by the Florida Cooperative Extension Service, extension agent Mrs. Arlen C. Jones announces Mrs. Alicia M. Homrich will be the instructor.

Such problems as repairing torn screens and toaster plugs will be explained. Use of tools, basic household repairs, temporary and permanent solutions to old problems will be discussed.

Census Bureau takes employment survey

Local representatives of the Bureau of the Census will conduct a survey of employment in this area during the week of November 14-19, Thomas W. McWhirter, Director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Atlanta, announced today.

The survey is conducted for the U.S. Department of Labor in a scientifically designed sample of approximately 70,000 households throughout the United States. Employment and unemployment statistics based on results of this survey are used to provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the nation.

For example, in September the survey indicated that of the 97.9 million men and women in the civilian labor force, 91.1 were employed. The nation's unemployment rate was 6.9 percent, down from 7.1 percent in August and substantially below the recession peak of 8.3 percent reached in the second quarter of 1976.

Information supplied by individuals participating in the survey is kept strictly confidential by law and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Interviewers who will visit households in this area include: Mrs. Doris Rosenberg, Mrs. Betty Gariga and Mrs. Selma Levitt.

Club sponsors service program

BELLE GLADE—The La Chic Mesdames Social Club will sponsor a community service program and buffet dinner on Friday, Nov. 25 at 8 p.m. at the Lake Shore Civic Center featuring Judge Alcee Hasting of Fort Lauderdale as the guest speaker.

Two awards will be given by the club to a local citizen and a local club for outstanding achievements during the year.

The theme for the meeting will be "Directions and alternatives regarding vital minority related issues."

The public is invited to attend the program and dinner.

Sugar League to play role promoting farms

Representatives of the Florida agricultural industry to visiting Sugar Cane League will play a groups and organizations in the very active part in portraying the greater Lake Okechobee area within the next few weeks.

According to Don Wain and Keith Cowan of the FSCL public relations department, the league will be sponsoring the event in order to give a better picture and understanding of the area agricultural industry.

The schedule begins today when the members of the National Association of Real Estate-Land and Farm Institute will stop at the Clewiston Inn for a luncheon seminar.

Cowan said a couple movies and short talks about the agriculture and a brief tour of the area are planned.

The group will be stopping here while en route to its national convention in Miami Beach.

On Sunday and Monday, the league will entertain a group of environmental students from Antioch College in Ohio.

The group will tour the area, focusing on the environmental safeguards taken by agriculturalists in the industry.

The United Methodist Church Conference Task Force on Agriculture will visit the area for two days on Nov. 15-17.

Cowan said this group will be mainly interested in gathering information to help formulate its stand in support of the United Farm Workers.

Community United Methodist Church of Belle Glade, whose pastor is the Rev. Mark Butler, is the host church for this national conference.

On Nov. 17-18 the Florida Society of Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers will be holding their annual meeting at the Clewiston Inn.

"Sugar Cane in the Everglades" will be the topic of a seminar on the first day of the program.

Guest speakers at the seminar will be John B. Boy, president of U.S. Sugar Corp., and Ray Liberti, executive director of the Palm Beach County Planning, Zoning and Building Department.

A bus tour will be conducted on the second day of the program, with visits to a sugar mill, the water management system, farm workers housing quarters and the show barn at the U.S. Sugar Cattle operation.

About 120 guests from eastern Palm Beach County will take a bus tour of the area during the first day of Farm-City Week on Nov. 18. Former County Commissioner E.W. "Bud" Weaver will be your host.

The group will visit a sugar mill, vegetable farms and climb the observation tower on the dike in Pahokee for a view of Lake Okechobee.

The Western Palm Beach County Farm Bureau is co-sponsoring this tour.

The annual Henry County Farm-City Tour will be held Nov. 19. Agricultural interests in Clewiston and LaBelle are included in the tour.

Finally, the Sugar Cane League will hold its annual meeting Nov. 22 at the Clewiston Inn.

Kemps

to be found by rescue workers, swept up in front of the college hospital. She was hospitalized for shock and an injury to her right ankle.

Thurman and Morgan wandered the night-shrouded mountainside until they were found at daybreak. Morgan had suffered a cut on his leg which required 32 stitches to close and Thurman's bare feet had received a number of minor cuts.

Ruby Kemp was found some hours after the flood first hit and was hospitalized for pneumonia, Rev. O'Farrell said.

The local pastor was the first person in Belle Glade to learn of the disaster, being awakened at 2:10 a.m. by a call from a college official who told him Dixie was in the hospital and the other family members still hadn't been found.

"I called the family here," Rev. O'Farrell said, beginning a long day for him, which was to have been highlighted by his church's homecoming, an activity which quickly faded into the shadow cast by the death of young Chris.

Mr. and Mrs. Tyson's first action was to notify Nick and Ruthana Vass, former residents of Belle Glade, in Greenville, S.C. The Vasses drove to Toccoa and shortly after Thurman had called Rev. O'Farrell to tell him he and Morgan were all right, identified the body of young Chris.

Rev. O'Farrell said the 7:30 a.m. call from Thurman brought home the extent of the disaster to the family. "Thurman said he was wiped out. The trailer was demolished and they didn't have any insurance. They lost everything."

He said he and the Rev. Carl Storey, pastor of First Baptist Church of Pahokee, where Ruby Kemp is a member, agreed in an early morning conversation that they would immediately appeal to their church congregations for aid to the Kemps.

During the day, similar appeals were made at the First Baptist Churches of Belle Glade and South Bay and the Belle Glade Church of God. Monday, other donation drives were started, all using Rev. O'Farrell's church as a focal point.

Among the other collection points is the Bible Book Store on Northwest Avenue L. Collections taken included one at Glades Central High School, where the staff donated to the relief of their former fellow faculty member, and another at Everglades Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Rev. O'Farrell stressed that although Toccoa Falls Bible College is associated with the Christian Alliance Church, and other Alliance Churches in South Florida will probably be taking donations for the school itself, his efforts are being directed specifically toward the Kemp family.

He said the fund drive now is primarily concerned with collecting money to help put the Kemps back on their feet but added clothing donations are also welcome.

For those donations, he said the sizes of the Kemp family are:

- Thurman: 38 waist and inseam 32 1/2 for trousers, size 16 shirt and 9 1/2 shoes.
- Dixie: size 12 dress, size 8 1/2 slacks, size 34 blouse and size 8 1/2 shoes.
- Morgan: size 16 stocky trousers, size 16 shirt and size 6 shoes.

Rev. O'Farrell said the Kemps will be remaining until the college reopens. "The school is going to remain closed until at least the 15th. We lost a lot of the faculty members."

lasting effect. Altman mention the possibility of criminal action Tuesday, saying it could be more impressive for the landowners if the city wins in court.

Commissioner William Grear said he would like to see the city take at least two or three owners to court in the hopes it would bring action by other property owners.

Baker suggested the city take the cases one at a time, beginning with property which presents definite hazard and is owned by someone living inside the city limits. He noted, however, the most the city could expect to be done to the owners would be fine imposed by the court.

"There's no such thing as jail time for violations of municipal ordinances," he said. "But most people do respect the courts enough to pay whatever fine is assessed by the judge."

Altman pointed out too, that taking criminal action doesn't preclude the city from taking civil action simultaneously and that might be the course followed.

The commissioners also had a long discussion on the possibility of writing a leash law with the goal of ridding the city of a growing number of stray dogs.

Altman, who asked the matter be placed on the agenda, said the term "leash law" would better be called an animal control law, pointing out two major problem areas, packs of wild dogs, which have reportedly killed several cows in the area recently, and stray domestic dogs which aren't being controlled.

Grear said the problem in the Southwest section of the city is particularly acute, with a growing number of strays. "They'll run out in front of you on the streets and you'll have to wait on them," he said.

Commissioner Claude Tindall, on the other hand, said he has noticed an improvement over the past couple of years since the Palm Beach County, Department of Animal Regulation has taken over enforcement of the city's laws.

Offering an alternative of writing a new law, Director of Public Safety Charles Goddett suggested, and the commission agreed, to ask for a concentrated effort on the part of the county to enforce the existing ordinance, at least so far as strays, vicious dogs, females in heat and sick dogs are concerned.

Altman said he hadn't expected to generate immediate action by having the leash law discussion placed on the agenda, that he is more interested in receiving input, especially from the public, on what the answer to the problem should be.

Tindall suggested the best way to get public input would be to begin a strict enforcement program but Altman said he wasn't ready to begin a concentrated effort to enforce an ordinance which hasn't been enforced at all in the past, except when someone receives complaints.

Goddett said he has recently checked with a number of cities in the county and the only thing in common he has found is that no city in the area has a leash law which is being

New dentist to open office in Belle Glade

BELLE GLADE - A new dentist who has been in town for the past two weeks said this week he expects to open his office for practice about the end of November.

Dr. Albert M. Panella has moved to Belle Glade from Cortland, N.Y. and said he expects to open his practice at 119 N.E. First St., after remodeling his office space.

He is a 1951 graduate of the New York University College of Dentistry and served with the U.S. Army as a dentist during the Korean War from 1951 to 1953.

He has practiced in both Cincinnati and Cortland, N.Y. He said two of his sons, Albert and Steve, are still in college in Cortland.

a specified time, elapsed without something being done about it, to clean up the lot with city crews and attach a lien on the owner's property taxes.

John Baker cautioned the city against that, however, as being legally risky and suggested the city should go to court, either in a civil or criminal suit.

The commission has discussed the possibility of civil suits a number of times in the past but have been warned it would be a long and expensive process with the possibility of little

Milton Carpenter buys insurance company

Milton O. Carpenter, President of Milton Carpenter Insurance, Inc. of Belle Glade and Pahokee, announced today the purchase by his firm of Everglades Insurance Agency, of Pahokee.

"We take great pride in announcing the purchase of the Glades oldest independent insurance agency, Everglades Insurance," said Carpenter.

"Our faith in the progressive and expanding Glades area and our long-standing commitment to offer the most professional and experienced insurance service possible has made this purchase desirable for us," Carpenter said.

The Carpenter agency, the area's largest life, property, and casualty insurer, was founded in Pahokee in 1935 by Dan Carpenter and has served the area as an independent insurance agency continuously since.

Milton O. Carpenter, son of the founder, became president of the firm in 1965 and the agency's expansion to Belle Glade where the home office is now located stressed area-wide service.

Everglades Insurance Agency, which will be absorbed into the new ownership, was founded 46 years ago, also an independent insurance agency.

Carpenter stressed that all current policies of Everglades Insurance Agency will remain as written.

Mrs. Dorothea Denton, who is the daughter of the Carpenter agency's founder, is Pahokee Branch Manager. The branch office will expand to the facilities located at 163 Bacom Point Road, the previous home of Everglades Insurance, within the next few weeks.

Carpenter said the Pahokee branch expansion "would include additional staff and improve services for Pahokee customers the firm."

The long-standing location of the Pahokee branch office at 129 Lake Avenue will be phased when the move is complete, Carpenter said.

Representing more than a dozen major independent insurance firms, Milton Carpenter Insurance, Inc. is a member of the state and national Professional Insurance Agents association.

Straight from Bill Gunter

By Bill Gunter
STATE INSURANCE
COMMISSIONER

When I became State Insurance Commissioner, I pledged to do everything in my power to fight the root causes of spiraling automobile insurance rates that we are confronted with today.

The high cost of automobile repairs is the number one consumer complaint in Florida. A substantial percentage of auto repair is paid for by insurance companies and ultimately by auto insurance consumers. Consequently the Division of Fraudulent Claims of the Insurance Department has been active in investigating fraud associated with the auto repair business.

As a result of an extensive investigation by the division, a complaint has been filed against Moody Pontiac of Fort Lauderdale, a large south Florida dealership, for alleged violations of the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act.

The complaint alleges that practices engaged in by the dealership's body shop violate both state consumer protection statutes and Broward County consumer ordinances. Based on our investigation, we have reason to believe that the practices alleged against this dealer are fairly common and the toll taken in excessive charges to Florida consumers would, therefore, reach millions of dollars annually.

The specific investigation of Moody Pontiac, conducted by the Division of Fraudulent Claims, revealed that employees of the Moody Body Shop allegedly routinely repaired existing damaged parts, instead of installing new parts as authorized by insurance adjusters.

The money saved by the body shop through the use of such procedures is alleged to have been charged to labor or various other shop accounts so that the amount finally paid for repairs equalled the amount authorized by the insurance company appraisers, even though the repairs were not completed as authorized.

Additionally, the Moody Body Shop allegedly failed to provide its body shop customers with notice that they were entitled to receive a written estimate of repair charges as required by county ordinance. In an effort to prevent recurrences of the alleged violations, I have asked the Attorney General making process to include in the Florida Deceptive and Unfair Trade Practices Act, provisions specifically prohibiting acts such as those allegedly engaged in by Moody Pontiac.

Further, the Department of Insurance is developing procedures so that individuals and insurance companies can be reasonably assured that parts and labor paid for have actually been provided. These steps should help us curtail fraud activities by automobile repair shops.

If you have questions, or would like to comment on any subject, write to "Straight From Bill Gunter," Suite LL-25, The Capitol, Tallahassee, Florida, 32304.

Farm Bureau wins awards

BELLE GLADE Mrs. Edna Stokes, Western Palm Beach Farm Bureau Women's Committee chairman, was named the outstanding Farm Bureau woman in District Seven and the local Farm Bureau won first place in its category for selling the Farm Bureau food products last year.

The honors were announced this week at the 36th Annual Convention held by the Florida Farm Bureau at the Orland Hyatt World in Kissimmee, which was held Sunday through Tuesday.

Dennis Emerson, FFBF assistant to the president, presented the award to Mrs. Stokes, commending her work in county and district women's activities.

Mrs. Jean Nix of Leon County was named the top woman in the state.

In winning the award for highest sales of Farm Bureau foods, the Western Palm Beach Country Farm Bureau, in the 751-1050 member category, sold $7,768.72 worth, edging out Brevard County and Gadsden County Farm Bureaus.

Some of the commodities sold included ham, peanuts, pecans, honey, Florida citrus, Pennsylvania apples, Illinois cornmeal popcorn, Michigan apple cider, pure maple syrup from New Hampshire and Wisconsin cheese.

The discussion will begin at 8 p.m. in the Bryant Auditorium at the Glades Office Building.

Cliffhanger keeps fans on feet

Linemen call the winning Raider play

ELUDING ONE TACKLER, Ollie Sheppard, County defender in the foreground in the Raiders' upset thriller Friday night.

STUART-Raider Head Coach Willie McDonald said he was as surprised as anyone else when quarterback David Jones ran a 45-yard quarterback draw play to perfection to pull out a cliffhanger of a game and send Glades Central fans into pandemonium here Friday.

THE PLAY, as fans who watched the 22-20 victory over favored Martin County High are referring to it now, was born when center William Lewis and guard Douglas Stokes told Jones in the huddle, with eight seconds remaining on the clock, that the Tiger defense was spreading wide and if they gave him the word, to follow them up the middle.

"It was supposed to have been a pass play," Jones said later, "but they (Lewis and Stokes) yelled to 'come on' and I followed them up the middle."

And follow them Jones did, for 45 yards up the middle, with pass receiver Ollie Sheppard throwing the final and key block on the ten yard line and the clock running out as he passed the five yard line, racing into the end zone with not a Tiger around him.

And pandemonium was the only way to describe the Raider sidelines and the stands where a handful of partisan visitors were going wild. That single play capped what a number of fans around Belle Glade are already calling the best game the Raiders have played since their two championship years.

It was a game which saw the Raiders go into a 14-0 lead four seconds into the second quarter, then stand on that lead until only seven minutes were left in the game and Martin County tied it up, 14-14.

It was a game which saw 16 points scored in the last three minutes and 50 seconds, with the lead changing hands three times. And it was a game which saw the incredulous McDonald watch a called pass play swiftly turn into a running play which won the game with no time at all left on the clock.

Glades Central's first score against Martin County, which was favored to win by 10 points, was set up halfway through the first period, when Jeff Henderson punted the ball to the Tiger eight yard line and Willie Gibson picked off a Martin County pass four plays later and scampered back to the one before being hauled down.

Before the Raiders could get off their first play a penalty put the ball at the one-foot line and David Robinson bulled into the end zone for Glades Central's first score. Sylvester Knowles' attempted place kick was no good and the Raiders led, 6-0 with 5:34 left in the first quarter.

Glades Central threatened again on the second play after the Tigers received the kickoff, beginning when Joe Byrd intercepted a pass on the 50 yard line, was trapped and lateraled it to Michael Russell, who carried it to the Tiger 44 before being forced out of bounds. The Raiders failed to capitalize on the play, however, and turned the ball over on downs four plays and a penalty later on the Tiger 33.

The Tigers were also unable to move the ball and after later punted out to the Raider 39, setting up a 61 yard scoring drive in six plays.

David Robinson, the Raiders' workhorse running back, started the attack with a 26 yard run, slashing to the Tiger 35 before being pulled down. Jeff Henry ran into a stone wall on the next play and was thrown for a yard loss. After one unsuccessful pass, Jones passed to Sheppard at the Martin County 16, Robinson hammered through to the four and a first down but was then thrown for a loss at the Tiger 9. The Raiders scored on the first play in the second quarter when Jones fired a pass to Sheppard in the end zone, then turned around and connected with Sheppard again for a two-point conversion and Glades Central led, 14-0 with 11:56 left in the half.

A blocked punt at the Raider 48 yard line gave the Martin County team its first good field position of the night and set up the Tigers' first score. Two penalties advanced the ball first to the Raider 33 yard line and then to their 18. Three plays later, a pass-punt on the board for the Tigers and after a successful PAT, the Raiders' edge had been narrowed to 14-7 with 4:53 remaining in the half.

The rest of the half and all the third quarter were scoreless, with the Raider defense holding Martin County in their own territory and the Raider offense pushing within threatening distance three times. The action got hot and heavy halfway through the final quarter when Martin County finally pulled out of its own territory for the first time in the second half, again beginning with a blocked punt on the Raider 43.

After failing to get more than two yards, the Tigers punted to the Raider three yard line, where Joe Byrd picked up the ball, only to fumble it and watch a Tiger fall on it. One play later, the Tigers rammed the ball into the end zone, kicked an extra point and the final drama of the game was set up with a 14-14 tie with 7:36 left in

Play last game of year Friday

Cubs have even record chance

BELLE GLADE-Despite a 40-8 drubbing last week, the Glades Day School Baby Gators still have a chance at a 500 first-year season if they can defeat Kings Academy Friday night.

Coach Dick Schmidt said his junior varsity charges did better than the scoreboard indicated Thursday night in Okeechobee, but major mistakes, including six lost fumbles and two intercepted passes halted Gator attempts to score. The lone Gator touchdown came in third quarter when Ted Reeves took a kickoff and wound through tacklers 80 yards into the Okeechobee end zone. Philip Dulany's conversion attempt was good, but the Gators were still unable to slice (Continued on Page 2)

Bassmasters win UBF tourney

CLEWISTON-The Lake Okeechobee Bassmasters of Clewiston wound up two days of fishing by winning the first annual United Bass Fisherman's club bass fishing tournament Saturday and Sunday while fishing from here.

Local anglers John Davis, John Kelly, Derrell Mathis, Finley Pate, Doug Bowe, and Sonny Campbell caught a total of 141 pounds, eight ounces of fish to lead 20 other clubs and collect $847 in prize money. Kelly was the top fisherman of the contest, scoring with 36 pounds, two ounces during the two days. The big fish of the contest was taken by Gene Wiley of Winter Haven, and weighed nine pounds, four ounces.

The six men were chosen to represent the Bassmasters by the membership of the Belle Glade club.

Placing second in the contest were the Happy Hookers of central Florida, who caught 134 pounds, 13 ounces and in third place was the Southwest Lake Okeechobee Bass Club of Clewiston with 124 pounds, 13 ounces.

In all, 21 clubs were entered and 126 anglers fished. Behind Kelly as top fisherman was Larry Clark of Palatka and in third place was Derrell Mathis of Belle Glade with 34 pounds, 12 ounces.

A great deal of suspense was added during the weigh-in when it was discovered the Happy Hookers and Bassmasters were in a close race for first place.

The issue wasn't resolved until Sonny Campbell, the last angler to weigh in, brought ten pounds, four ounces caught Sunday to the scales. The Bassmasters needed just under four pounds to be the top club in the state, and Campbell's total put them well over the mark.

At the present time, there are 26 UBF affiliated clubs in the state. The Bassmasters hold monthly meetings the last Wednesday in the month at the Masonic Lodge in Belle Glade. Meetings start at 8:00 p.m. and the general public is invited to attend and new members are welcomed.

The catch Saturday and Sunday resulted in the Bassmasters being declared the top club in the state and they will hang on to that title until the next tournament to be held next year, date and time to be announced later.

Lake fishing results in limit bass catches

By Nan Corbin

Good fishing continued in the Belle Glade area of Lake Okeechobee during the past week with the pepper grass beds in Pelican Bay and near the Grassy Island area producing several limit catches of bass.

On Monday, Jim Wadlington of Belle Glade got the week off to a good start with an 8 1/2 pounder taken on a Devil's Horse.

Nelson Neff and John Dippold of Belle Glade used plastic worms on Thursday to take their limits of bass to 5 pounds each.

Hershall Woodall of Opaloka brought in his limit on Thursday with one at 7 pounds and a real beauty at 11 pounds 4 oz. taken on plastic worms. Claude Hendrix of Miami fished with Hershall and also produced a limit catch.

Belle Glade fisherman, Larry

Underwood, used devil's horse plugs on Saturday to take his limit to 7 pounds.

Alan Bevers of Orlando fished with local angler Buddy Whitehurst on Friday and landed 8 really nice bass on black plastic worms.

Local fisherman, Donnie Herring and Herb Lewis, reported near limit catches on Friday using plastic worms.

Don Lane, Belle Glade, reported his limit on Thursday with his largest going 7 pounds, and again on Friday to 5 pounds.

Jack Whitlock and Tex Doney of Belle Glade limited out on Saturday using top water plugs.

William Arthur of West Palm Beach brought in a nice string of bass ranging in weight from 3 pounds to 6 1/2 pounds.

THE LAKE OKEECHOBEE Bassmasters walked away with the Florida State Six-Man Team Championship held this weekend in Clewiston. The six Belle Glade men weighed in a total of 141 pounds, eight ounces. Team members include: Darrell Mathis, John Davis, Sonny Campbell, John Kelley, Doug Bowe and Findlay Pate. The tournament was sponsored by United Bass Fisherman.

down the 40-point edge that Okeechobee had built up. Okeechobee scored 16 points in the first quarter, increased their lead to 22 in the second, and wound up in the third with 40.

"They had a good, solid offense and a good defense," said Schmidt. "Every time we would get within scoring range, we'd lose a fumble, it seemed."

Two of the Okeechobee backs, both over six foot tall, didn't help matters much, either.

Statistically, the Gators gained 130 yards on the ground and 60 in the air, but the yards gained were in midfield and not into the end zone.

Leading the Gator Cubs in defense were Victor Perez and Nacho Bueno. Perez made 12 tackles and nine assists and Bueno got 12 tackles and ten assists.

"They used an off tackle play that rolled our line up," said Schmidt. "Then the two linebackers had to come up and make the stop." This accounted for the large number of tackles Perez and Bueno were able to make.

Friday night, the Gators wind up their first-ever junior varsity season against Kings Academy. The game will be played at Glades Day beginning at 7:30.

Kings, with a record of 2-3, including a drubbing at the hands of Okeechobee, will be trying to even their record, just as will the Gators, who have an identical record.

Raiders—

When Terry Hammon received the following kickoff, it appeared that tie would last long. He raced 65 yards downfield before being bumped out of bounds by the last Tiger defender at the Martin County 28 yard line.

Jones quickly passed to Sheppard at the Tiger 14. Robinson was stopped in his tracks at the line of scrimmage and Jones passed to Don Andrews on the next play at the Martin County 1 yard line for a first down.

That was where the Tigers threw up a defensive stone wall, dropping Robinson with losses to the three and then the four yard lines and breaking up two plays in the end zone to force a turnover on downs at the Martin County four.

With time rapidly running out and an overtime looming before them, Martin County forced the ball out to the five but on the next play, lost ground to the three.

Preston Vickers slashed through from his linebacker position on third down and 11 and sacked the quarterback in his own end zone and the Raiders went wild with a 16-14 lead with 3:35 remaining in the game.

Martin County's free punt from their own 20 ended up at the Glades Central 47 yard line and Jones and his troops started a time-gobbling strategy that almost worked before the ball went over downs at the Martin County 47 four plays later, just short of the first down that would have allowed the Raiders to play out the clock.

On the first play from scrimmage, hopes for a Glades Central victory were dashed when a pass play went all the way into the end zone and the Tigers moved out in front for the first time in the evening, 20-6, with 0:56 left on the clock after a pass conversion attempt failed.

Jones went to the air and four passes later, connected with David Robinson at the Raider 48 to buy more downs with a first and ten with 16 seconds left in the game. With time for only two more plays, Jones threw once more to Sheppard in an apparently busted play but a pass interference call gave the ball to the Raiders at the Martin County 45 yard line with eight seconds remaining.

The rest is the talk of Raider fans all over Belle Glade: how Jones followed his blockers up the middle in the impossible play that won the game; how the team ambled screamed onto the field when the attendance believed he was hurt after he fell to the ground in exhaustion; how the officials took more than ten minutes to clear the end zone of exultant fans to allow the Raiders their point after attempt, which went bad but wasn't needed anyway.

Coach McDonald was high in his praise of virtually every member of the team, saying he is now allowing Jones to call more of his own plays; that his offensive line, so porous earlier in the year and now made up largely of sophomores had improved sufficiently to allow the winning game.

On offense, the Martin County game was probably the Raiders' best this year, with David Robinson racking up 111 yards in 16 carries and another 12 yards on a pass reception, scoring one TD for the night.

Jones rushed 46 yards for the final TD and passed for another 119 yards, completing 11 for 39, with one interception and fumbling once. He passed to Ollie Sheppard, who caught three passes for 63 yards; for one of the TD's.

In the meantime, Don Andrews caught five passes for 49 yards and Terry Hammon made a 65-yard yard runback.

McDonald mentioned the entire offensive line as having been much improved, citing particularly William Lewis, Rufus Washington, Douglas Stokes, Charles Miller, David Jones, Ricky Taylor, Rufus Chambers and Tony West, for giving Jones time for his passing plays as well as springing free key running plays.

Defensively, Preston Vickers made the spectacular play of the game, sacking the Martin County quarterback in his own end zone for a two-point safety which gave the winning edge to the Raiders effort. He also made four tackles and four assists during the night.

Otherwise, Don Andrews led the defense, racking up ten tackles and four assists, followed by Anthony Jones with eight tackles and one assist, Eric Beckford with six tackles and four assists, Randy Burden with four tackles and two assists and Joe Byrd with four tackles, one assist and two interceptions made.

Jeff Henderson, in his first game as punter, booted the ball three times for an average of 20.2 yards.

Historical writing results in award

BELLE GLADE—Montlake Media, parent company of the Belle Glade Herald and the Everglades Observer, won first place this week-end in the first annual Florida Press Association Historical Writing Contest.

The contest is being sponsored by the Florida Historical Society and in all, 67 entries from daily and weekly newspapers were submitted from across the state.

Montlake's entry was a special section dealing with the 1926 Hurricane that struck Moore Haven and Clewiston in September of that year.

The section contained 36 pages and copies of it are on file in the Belle Glade Public Library.

Contained within the special section were eye-witness accounts of the hurricane and its aftermath as well as "what to do" articles in the event of a hurricane.

The Belle Glade Herald and Everglades Observer are planning an issue similar to the 1926 Hurricane special section dealing with the 1926 hurricane which devastated the eastern shore of Lake Okechobee.

The issue is being scheduled to be produced as close to the date of that storm as possible on its 50th anniversary.

Anyone who has photographs or information on the hurricane is being asked to contact the Belle Glade Herald or Everglades Observer as information is now being gathered.

will be returned unharmed with appropriate credit given.

"We want to make this section as comprehensive as possible," said publisher Bill Lampton. "We were proud of the job we did on the 1926 storm and want to do an even better job on the 1928 hurricane."

A great deal of research, interviewing and work goes into a special section such as the one being planned and the success of it can be attributed directly to those pioneers and their descendants who give their help in making it possible.

Placing second in the contest was the Tampa Tribune. In third was the Jacksonville Journal and receiving honorable mentions were the Ft. Lauderdale News, Palm Beach Post and Wildwood Herald-Express, the only other weekly to place among the 67 entries.

DR. CECIL CONLEY welcomed guests during the laying of the cornerstone of Palm Beach Junior College-Glades' new campus buildings last Thursday. Ranged behind Conley are brother Masons who took part in the ceremony. The primary speaker for the event was Dr. Harold Manor, outgoing college president.

Profile In Business

Gilbert Alvarez is the owner-manager of Gilbert's Jewelry located at 125 West Avenue A. Gilbert's was founded in 1967 by Gilbert Alvarez, Sr., the present Gilbert's father. It has always been located on Avenue A.

Gilbert's handles Mikasa chain, Panasonic stereos, a selection of tapes and records, Onida silver, Seiko, Bulova, Speiden watches, Puki jewelry, Keopsake and Everwed diamonds, Foster Grant sunglasses, small appliances such as blenders and toasters, Club aluminum cookware, greeting cards and many unique gifts, such as ceramics, clocks and figurines. He has just about everything needed for a wedding.

Besides offering such a wide variety of quality items, Gilbert services and repairs anything he sells. Gilbert's also has a credit plan available.

Alvarez came to the United States from Cuba in 1961. He graduated from Belle Glade High School in 1968 and then attended Palm Beach Junior College until 1970 where he majored in pre-engineering. In 1970, he joined the Army where he rose to the rank of sergeant.

In 1972, he returned to school. He attended Florida Atlantic University in Boca Raton where he received a degree in Accounting. He graduated with a 3.8 average, which qualified him to graduate with top honors.

Gilbert was a senator at Florida Atlantic University and also received a high honor while he was there. He received the senior accounting award given by the School of Business.

After college, Gilbert worked for a CPA firm, Price Waterhouse, for one year. He then returned to Belle Glade to live and work at their jewelry store.

Gilbert and his wife, Luisa have two children, Christina, 2 and Michelle, 1. When not in Gilbert's, Alvarez enjoys scuba diving and taking underwater pictures.

Alvarez believes in the Glades. He maintains that it is the best area in the world. This is the reason he moved back. He plans on being here for many years to come. Alvarez said that he wants to continue serving his customers with quality merchandise and service. This is why he is in business in Belle Glade.

One dead in accident in Glades

BELLE GLADE—One man died and two escaped with injuries when the car they were riding in rolled off the bridge over Hillsboro Canal at Duda Road and SR 80.

Belle Glade Police Detective Curtis Stambaugh said David Martinez Quintero, 20, a resident of the A. Duda Labor Camp, was trapped in the 1965 Oldsmobile station wagon but Guillermo Guerra, 17 and Emmanuel Rodriguez, 18, both of Apt. 33 in Osceola Center, escaped from the vehicle and left the scene.

Stambaugh said Quintero was driving the car north on A. Duda Road, with Guerra riding in the front right seat and Rodriguez, who owned the car, asleep in the back seat.

He said the car was driven through the red light at the intersection with SR 80 at a high rate of speed and Quintero apparently lost control when he hit a dip in the road just before the bridge, with the car evidently rolling over off the bridge into the canal.

Stambaugh and Patrolman George Radford, who also worked the accident, said Quintero's arm was caught in the door. The other two managed to escape and were picked up shortly after. No charges were filed.

Obituary

ECKMAN SERVICES FIELD

SOUTH BAY—Funeral services for Samuel L. "Pop" Edman of 168 N.W. Third St., a resident of the Glades for the past 36 years, were held Thursday at Mixson Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Bill Anderson of South Bay First Baptist Church officiating.

Eckman, 88, was a retired bookkeeper for U.S. Sugar Corporation. He died Nov. 1.

Survivors include four nieces, Mrs. Verda Mathewson and Mrs. Steve Weeks, both of Belle Glade and Mrs. Howard Woodham and Mrs. William Pierce, both of South Bay; two sisters-in-law, Miss Lycretia Sisley of Charleroi, Pa. and Mrs. Maude McEwen of Charleroi, Pa.

Burial services were held in Belle Vernon, Pa. at the Rebooth Cemetery. Howard W. McCrory Funeral Home in Fayette City, Pa. conducted the burial while Mixson Funeral Home is in charge of local arrangements.

Christian Comments

By Bill Anderson
Pastor First Baptist Church of South Bay

The other day while traveling I noticed a bumper sticker which read "Smile, God Loves You." I found myself smiling and thinking how grateful I was that he did love me. As I traveled along the road thinking about this statement, I began thinking how out of proportion it was because I should have been smiling because I love God.

Knowing that I can do as Paul said "I can do all things through Christ which strengthens me," I find joy in knowing I can find strength that comes directly from God. Strength that will help overcome trials and tribulations, strength that comforts me when I am down and a surplus of strength that will help me to share God with others.

Paul so amply put it "If God be for me, who could be against me." This was not a smug remark coming from Paul but a statement of fact. Paul readily realized that without God he was nothing. God made man a free moral agent. That simply means that man can do what ever he chooses. Yet we find God always there when man has gone as far as he can by himself and needs help.

Sin is defined not as that which is right or wrong but the true definition of sin is "Out of God's will." Some of the greatest sins that are being committed today are being committed by people of the church. Some of the greatest of these sins is the judging of others. So you see, I smile not only because God loves me but because I love him. The peace he give me surpasses all understanding of men and that's the greatest peace of mind and the security of Gods redemptive love.

Vida Cristiana Latina

ESCRIBE: JOSE ANTONIO GARCIA

Hoy vamos hablar y razonar sobre un "Misterio" impuesto a la humanidad por 16 siglos, ese misterio es: "El dogma de Santísima Trinidad". Cuando usted lee lo enseñado por Jesucristo, en ello siempre encuentra hermosas ilustraciones o parábolas sobre cosas lógicas y entendibles a la mente humana y a la vez, ve a Jesús rodeado de un discipulado compuesto de gente humilde, que dicho de forma mas exacta eran "gente de la tierra", como los llamaban despectivamente los escribas y sacerdotes del día de Jesús; pero esto no intimidaba al Mesías, que vino a la Tierra a buscar corazones mansos y no a intelectuales.

Teniendo esto como principio, es imposible que Jesús fuera parte de un misterio (La "trinidad") de lo cual el NUNCA HABLO. ni trato de explicar. Su tema básico fue "El Reino de los Cielos" lo cual uso en la mayor parte de sus parábolas.

En la Biblia, hay muchos textos que automáticamente echan por tierra el dogma o doctrina de la "trinidad" y para su beneficio, vamos a citar y aclarar algunos. Pero recuerde siempre al leer los textos de la Biblia, que el dogma dice: "Que Jesús es Dios".

"Que Jesús es eterno."
"Que Jesús es onnipotente."
"Que Jesús es inmortal como Dios" etc. etc.

Ahor fíjese: La Biblia dice: Jehová nuestro Dios, Jehová UNO SOLO ES. Deu. 6:4. Si la trinidad dice que los tres son uno, ya aquí hay una contradicción. 1. San Pedro el llamado "primer papa" dice: "Bendito sea el Dios y Padre de nuestro Señor Jesucristo. (Ira. Peter 1:3). Según la trinidad, como va Jesús a tener padre, si el es eterno, y menos como va a tener un Dios, si dice el dogma que el es Dios! (Razone usted por si mismo).

Jesús a la hora de morir dijo: Dios mío, Dios mío! Por que me has desamparado? Preguntamos; si Jesús era Dios, a quien clamaba...?

San Pablo aclara esto cuando dice: "Hay un solo Dios y un solo mediano entre Dios y los hombres. (Ira. Timoteo 2:5-6) Dos personas diferentes!

El propio Jesucristo dijo: "EL PADRE MAYOR ES QUE YO" (Juan 14:28) San Pablo aclarando mas dijo: "La cabeza de Cristo es Dios" (Ira. Cor. 11:3) La Biblia Nacar Colunga y Scio como San Miguel (Católicos las dos) dicen: "El cual es la imagen de Dios... (Se me parece, pero no el mismo Dios) el primogenito de toda criatura. (Col. 1:15,16) Primogenito es primer engendrado, no eterno!

Jesucristo mismo, que dio la revelación del Apocalipsis a Juan dice: "Revelación de Jesucristo al ángel de la Iglesia... estas cosas dice el Amen, es Testigo Fiel y Verdadero, el principio de la creación de Dios. (Vea Apoc. 1:3, 14) Sobre el fin del mundo, Jesús dijo que ni el ni los ángeles sabían que día era y que ese día solo lo sabía el Padre. (Vea Mateo 24:36)

Ahora preguntamos a los que afirman que Jesucristo es Dios, como es posible que el NO SABIA cuando era el fin del mundo si el era Dios? Se había fijado usted en esta contradicción del falso dogma de la "trinidad"? y como pudo morir Jesús, si Dios es inmortal? Sencillamente, porque Jesús no era Dios, sino su hijo; y algo tan simple no necesita explicación.

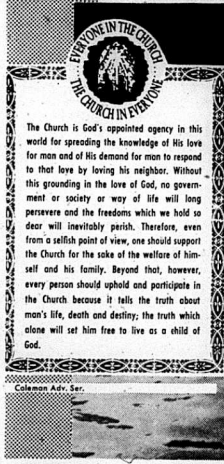

Casi siempre al vulgo se impresionado con: "Hay que ser un teólogo para entender esto" eso es un FRAUDE! pues los discipulos de Jesús fueron gente sencilla y sin cultura, lo que se necesita es una mente espiritual y un corazón manso, y LEER LA BIBLIA, pues sin la lectura de la Biblia, usted no puede poner a prueba cualquier creencia por muy antigua o popular que sea, por eso nuestro consejo sigue siendo el de cada semana: LEA SU BIBLIA. y busque estos textos para verificar la autenticidad de ellos por USTED MISMO.

PLACIDITY

"Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee. Because he trusteth in thee." Isaiah 26:3

"The peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus." Phillipians 4:7

God has never promised life without trouble nor progress without striving. He has, however, promised that amid the tumult and strife He would give us an inner peace if we let Him live in our hearts. Learn about this unusual peace offered to all freely.

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedom which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the welfare of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

The Ladies of Lee Choir to perform

PAHOKEE—"The Ladies of Lee" choir, Thursday, November 17 at 8:15 sponsored by the Pahokee-United Methodist Church. Canal Point Ministerial Association.

The "Ladies of Lee" Choir is directed by J. Roosevelt Miller, assistant Professor of Voice at Lee College. He says "The primary objective of the choir is to interpret through speech, testimony, and song the true methods of Christianity."

During their 17 year existence, their performances have taken them many thousands of miles from their school across the United States and in several foreign countries. More recently they have toured Europe and Hawaii. They perform mostly in churches, schools, and colleges; however, when an open door is given them they endeavor to grant a request.

Lee College is a 4 year Liberal Arts Institution fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools and is operated under the auspices of the Church of God, Cleveland, Tennessee. Being a church related school, the student body now exceeds 1300 and is made of students of the 50 states and several foreign countries.

The public is cordially invited to attend this concert at 8:15. The nursery will be open.

Pahokee Methodists announce revival services

PAHOKEE—Revival services began Sunday night, November 13, at Pahokee United Methodist Church, with two men well known in the area leading the services. The Rev. Enoch Finkler will be the preacher, while Eddie Piper will lead the singing.

Finkler is from Pelon, S.C. where he has served the Methodist Church for thirteen years. He is a graduate of the Citadel, Charleston, S.C., and did graduate work at both Duke and Emory Universities. He is active in the field of Evangelism, and has preached revivals in all parts of the United States. Rev. Finkler will be remembered by many in the area as having led several revivals at the Canal Point United Methodist Church.

Piper, of Lewiston, Pa., will lead the singing at these services. He also has ministered in our area, leading the singing in a community wide revival and the Methodist Church in Canal Point. Piper is very active in music evangelism. He has a daily radio program and a weekly television program, as well as having cut several records albums of gospel music.

These revival services will begin each evening at 7:30, and will run through Friday night. The nursery will be open, and the public is invited to attend.

Miss Coughenour is appointed director

PAHOKEE—The First United Methodist Church of Pahokee announces the appointment of Miss Beth Coughenour as Director of Christian Education. Miss Coughenour is the daughter of a United Methodist Minister, and has several years of experience in directing youth activities. She comes to Pahokee from the Lane Mills United Methodist, Brockway, Pa.

Miss Coughenour was born in Greensburg, Pa. She attended Huntington College, Hunting, Pa., earning degrees in biology and psychology. She also earned a masters in psychology from the University of Pennsylvania, graduating Phi-Beta Kappa. In 1975, Miss Coughenour was listed as one of the outstanding young women of America, being nominated by Senator Schweiker, of Pa. She has had extensive training in music, including piano, organ and voice.

As she begins her work in Pahokee, Miss Coughenour will be working with children, youth, and general Sunday School activities.
